

The Range Croquet Club, Maleny Report 300919

On Thursday Kath Smith and Gillian Bradley played one game of golf croquet against Donny Griffiths and Bev Sockhill on Thursday beating them 7 - 5. Afternoon tea and a visit from Ken Barker and Vince Carbery led to a rearrangement of the schedule. Gillian and Bev played Donny to a four all draw. Kath played Ken in a 14 point game of association which Ken won 14 - 6.

The club division 4 championships were played on Saturday. Stuart Craig, Priscilla Vickers and Gillian all acquitted themselves well. Stuart, playing ill was beaten 5 - 4 by Gillian and 4 - 3 by Priscilla. In what would become the final, Gillian played Priscilla and, in another tight finish edged ahead 8 - 7. Congratulations to Gillian - Division 4 champion for 2019. In the photo Gillian and Priscilla are facing off before the final. No ankles were hurt in the performing of this activity.

On Sunday Helen Andrews and Vince teamed up in a game of association against Nick Cram and Kath. Helen starred making 4 hoops with her team winning 7 - 4. It's not the score that matters but the spirit in which the game was played. This was a game which was punctuated by numerous visits from other players and a social success on that basis alone.
