

The Range Croquet Club, Maleny Report 281019

Several members of our club attended the funeral of Bill Bray in Nambour on Tuesday. Bill was 98 when he died, having been a fine member of his community and club. I have met many fundamentally decent people in my time playing croquet but none more so than Bill. Vale. The photo shows Bill Bray in Nambour colours.

Thursday turned out to be a “ladies day” with Bev Sockhill and Gillian Bradley narrowly beating Nick Cram 17 - 16 while, on the same lawn, Kath Smith played well to pin back Ken Barker’s ears 16 - 10.

Two games of doubles association croquet were Bill Bray cut short by a storm bearing down on us on Sunday afternoon. Vince Carbery and Kath played Sarah Widin and Nick in one game while in the other Wallace Ray and Ken played Donna Manning and Stuart Craig. Donna and Nick both made good breaks but no scores were recorded because of the interrupted nature of the game.

The Christmas party is to be held at noon on the 15th of December at the Orangery. Please let Priscilla know whether or not you are coming.

Coaching for beginners and others is available from 8 am to 10 am on Saturdays. These are popular sessions in a friendly, relaxed atmosphere.

Play days on the once again green and cheerful lawns at the bottom of the showground are 2.00 pm for 2.30 pm on Thursdays and Sundays.
