Ken and Nick teamed up to play doubles in the RSL Classic held at Caloundra. Troy McCallum from Bundaberg won the main event while Ricki Barrett (Caloundra) and Bill Habner (Nambour) won the doubles competition. Ken and Nick both played well to come in second on a count back.

Thursday saw a short game between Kath Smith and Ken which Ken won 7 - 4 while Bev Sockhill and Sally Adams went down to Helen Andrews 5 - 6.

On Friday several players from various clubs braved the heat to play in the second division club event. Vince Carbery won three out of four to take first prize while Ken was runner up. The attached photo shows Vince receiving his prize from Val Carbery.

Saturday saw slightly more benign conditions with Miggy Mackie from Graceville winning 3rd division while Peter Mackie, also from Graceville was runner up. In fourth division Lesley Johnson from Headland Buderim took first place while Priscilla Vickers was runner up.

Congratulations to all players and many thanks to all who helped with the organisation and officiating of this event.
