

The Range Croquet Club, Maleny Report 251119

A jolly social afternoon was had on Thursday when Bev Sockhill, Donna Manning and Donna's cousin Vicky P. visited the lawn for a game of golf croquet where no scores were kept but much fun was had.

Two games of Aussie Croquet were played in the Saturday morning training session by newcomers Janelle Wilson and Helen Uhlmann. Symmetrical results were recorded with Janelle winning the first, and Helen the second, 14 - 12.

Nick Cram and fifteen others enjoyed an afternoon on the lawns on Saturday celebrating Nick's granddaughter's 21st birthday. Balls were hit about and a dousing was narrowly avoided when Wallace Roy intervened whilst on a routine check of the automatic sprinkler system.

There was no play on Sunday however Kath Smith and Donna had a pleasant cup of tea under the shade cloth beside lawn 1.

Croquet is a friendly game which encourages polite behaviour between players. Games normally begin and end with opponents shaking hands and genuinely wishing each well. In the photo Robert Elliot and Miggy Mackie, having exchanged pleasantries, are about to begin their game in the third division section of the Maleny Club tournament held recently. Miggy won the game and went on to beat her husband Peter in a subsequent game to win the event.
